

RHYTHM IN THE BLUES

For the Georgian Kazakh painter Aigana Gali, meanwhile, ancient cosmologies such as Tengrism, inform luminous abstract canvases that evoke the vastness, light and mythic landscapes of the Eurasian Steppe. Her work explores colour, spirituality and human connection to nature through expansive, atmospheric forms. Gali's paintings, shown internationally - including at the Saatchi Gallery and the Royal Academy of Arts - blend intuitive gesture and movement, like a musician improvising with an instrument.

Aigana Gali
ARAL I
2015
Acrylic, Oil on Canvas
180 x 180 cm (71 x 71 inches)

£18,500

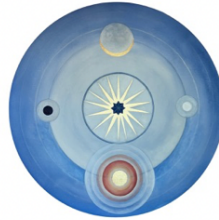

Aigana Gali
KOK DALA
2025
Acrylic, Oil on Canvas
160 x 130 cm (63 x 51 1/4 inches)

£17,200

Aigana Gali
TAN ATA
2014
Acrylic, Oil on Canvas
182 x 122 cm (71 1/2 x 48 inches)

£17,200

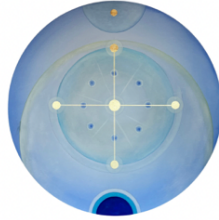

Aigana Gali
ORDA (KIZIL)
2026
Acrylic, Oil on Canvas, Gold Leaf
90 x 90 cm (35 1/2 x 35 1/2 inches)

£12,000

Aigana Gali
KOLSAY
2014
Acrylic, Oil on Canvas
160 x 130 cm (63 x 51 1/4 inches)

£16,200

Aigana Gali
ORDA (KOK)
2026
Acrylic, Oil on Canvas, Gold Leaf
90 x 90 cm (35 1/2 x 35 1/2 inches)

£12,000